Three Pillars Illuminates First Annual Love Lights Tree

332 lights, 47 strands shine in honor or memory of loved ones

Dousman, WI. December 7, 2017 – Three Pillars’ first annual Love Lights ceremony and reception saw 50 attendees gather to spread light this holiday season. The evening began with words of dedication celebrating the lights, which symbolically represented 332 individual lights and 47 strands shining in heartfelt honor or memory of loved ones. Christmas carols and the grand illumination of the tree concluded the ceremony, followed by cookies, hot cocoa, and fellowship in the warmth of the indoors.

In total, just over $6,500 was raised through the purchase of lights and strands for the Love Lights Tree. A portion of the funds will be used for new user-friendly technology to enhance lifestyle at the Three Pillars campus.

Jane Olisar, Chief Development Officer, welcomes guests at the first annual Love Lights Tree Lighting Ceremony.

Volunteer resident Suzanne Diesness greets attendees.

Residents Bob Mund and Gini Brown enjoy socialization and refreshments following the lighting of the tree.
