Three Pillars' Employees Awarded $8,000 from Scholarship Fund

Dousman, Wis. July 26, 2018—The Glenn L. Humphrey Masonic Lodge Scholarship Program presented 10 Three Pillars' employees with $8,000 in scholarships to help with tuition costs. The lodge administers funds for the annual program.

At a ceremony on the Three Pillars' campus in Dousman staff from dining services and nursing were awarded scholarships ranging from $750 to $1,000 to help with tuition costs.

Duane Bunting, Secretary and Scholarship Committee Chair, said, "Without the foresight of others before us, generous individual donations, and continued efforts by the Glenn L. Humphrey Lodge, these scholarships wouldn't be possible. As a Lodge we're grateful to see these areas come together to help a wonderful group of young students with their education."

Lifestyle. Value. Trust.

Three Pillars President & CEO Mark Strautman is grateful for the investment in their employees, “Competition for staff continues to grow and it’s critical we invest in our team. Their personal and professional growth is not only important for their development as individuals, but also for our overall growth as an organization. A happier, stronger workforce is good for our residents and the surrounding community. My thanks to the Glenn L. Humphrey Lodge and everyone involved for helping this wonderful group of individuals.”

Chief Human Resources & Compliance Officer Kathy Bernaden noted the importance of helping staff and the positive impact it has on retention, “We pride ourselves on recognizing and rewarding our employees. They play such an important role in our success. Acknowledging their work and caring about them as individuals helps our retention rate and is another example of what makes Three Pillars an employer of choice.”
