

Contact: Kelsey Pangborn
262.965.7333
kpangborn@threepillars.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fifteen Scholarships Presented to Three Pillars Employees
$9,000 Awarded by the Glenn L. Humphrey Masonic Lodge Scholarship Program

Dousman, WI, July 31, 2017 – For more than two decades, the Glenn L. Humphrey Masonic Lodge Scholarship Program has helped employees of Three Pillars Senior Living Communities continue their educational journey, thanks to the support of several donors and endowment fund partnerships. This year, at a ceremony held on the Dousman campus, fifteen employees were presented with scholarships totaling $9,000. Scholarship funds administered by the Lodge included the Dr. Howard & Shari Cook Endowment, Wisconsin Masonic Charities Perpetual Endowment, the Three Pillars Senior Living Communities Resident Endowment, contributions from the Oconomowoc-Hartland and Glenn L. Humphrey Masonic Lodges, and additional individual gifts. 2017 scholarship recipients included:

- Kirsten Bay, UW Eau Claire
- Sydney Dawson, University of Minnesota Twin Cities
- Morgan Durik, UW Whitewater
- Rachel Fielkow, WCTC
- Jennalee Fiess, Carroll University
- Kayla Green, UW Whitewater
- Sierra Hammond, WCTC
- Krista Johnson, UW LaCrosse
- Ashley Jondle, UW Whitewater
- Dana Jondle, UW Eau Claire
- Summer Keske, UW Madison
- Kristen Kraemer, Carroll University
- Hannah Roush, Carroll University
- Nichole Sweda, MATC
- Russ Turner, WCTC

Back row L to R: Kathy Bernaden, Three Pillars' Chief Human Resources Officer, Duane Bunting, resident and secretary of Glenn L. Humphrey Lodge, Sydney Dawson, Hannah Roush, Russ Turner, Krista Johnson, Rachel Fielkow, and Frank McKenna, Master of Glenn L. Humphrey Masonic Lodge. Front row L to R: Sierra Hammond, Kirsten Bay, Morgan Durik, Ashley Jondle, Dana Jondle, and Summer Keske. (Scholarship recipients not pictured: Jennalee Fiess, Kayla Green, Kristen Kraemer, and Nichole Sweda)

Lifestyle. Value. Trust.

According to Three Pillars CEO Mark Strautman, “It’s so important that we stand behind our team as they pursue their education. We know that their academic advancement allows for personal growth, and in turn, strengthens our success as an organization.”

The gift of scholarship money not only encourages the continued education of Three Pillars employees, but also allows the organization to express appreciation for their dedicated service to the residents.

Sierra Hammond, Three Pillars nursing department employee, accepts her scholarship from Frank McKenna, Master of the Glenn L. Humphrey Masonic Lodge at a ceremony on the Dousman campus.

Strautman continues, “We’re grateful for our exceptional team who brings our mission to life every day, and we extend our warmest gratitude to the Glenn L. Humphrey Lodge and all individuals and groups who make gifts towards the scholarship funds.”

Three Pillars Senior Living Communities is a non-profit organization located in Dousman, WI and is sponsored by the Masonic Fraternity. We take pride in meeting the social, physical, and spiritual needs of older adults by providing high quality senior housing and services. To learn more, visit us online at www.threepillars.org.

###

For more information about this story or Three Pillars Senior Living Communities, please contact Kelsey Pangborn, Communication Strategist at 262.965.7333 or kpangborn@threepillars.org.

Lifestyle. Value. Trust.