Three Pillars Senior Living Communities Celebrates Pi Day with Pie Bake-Off Competition

Residents, staff, and celebrity judges from Dousman came together in the spirit of pi; baking, sampling, and awarding top bragging rights

Dousman, WI. March 14, 2016 – Staff, residents, and friends from the community gathered to celebrate Pi Day (3/14 representing the number “pi”) with a pie bake-off competition, and the results have been tallied!

Three celebrity judges diligently tasted 19 pies, carefully scoring them each in several categories. Residents and staff participated by entering pies in the contest and doing some taste testing, too. The pies were outstanding, and all in attendance thoroughly enjoyed sampling the many unique creations. Entries included gooseberry, dutch apple, butterscotch bourbon, pecan, banana split, pear, rhubarb custard, and many more!

Congratulations to our winners:

- First Place: Kim Leppin from the Lifestyles Department - Banana Cream Pie
- Second Place: Gladys Skowlund, resident at the Village on the Square - Chocolate Angel Pie
- Third Place: Diane Marshall, also from the Lifestyles Department - Lucky Mint Pie

Thank you to Nancy Kopperud from The Petite Chef in Dousman, Betty Igl from Igl Catering in Dousman, and John Klink from the Three Pillars' Nutritional Excellence Department for being celebrity judges.
