Three Pillars Senior Living Communities Seeks Sunshine and Happiness For Residents During Strict Isolation

Dousman, Wi. March 18, 2020 – Three Pillars Senior Living Communities has asked the local community for help sharing some sunshine and happiness with their residents because of the growing threat of COVID-19 around the country.

Three Pillars Senior Living Communities is looking for people in the community willing to write and send cards or letters to residents who may be feeling blue, isolated, or in need of a smile.

President & CEO, Mark Strautman, said, “We believe these kind gestures will help bring happiness and joy to our residents during this time, and with all that is going on, it’s important we stick together as a community and keep everyone’s spirits high.”

Those interested in spreading joy and kindness with the residents of Three Pillars Senior Living Communities can send items to:
