COMMUNITY CHIPS IN TO BRING SMILES TO RESIDENTS OF THREE PILLARS SENIOR LIVING COMMUNITIES

Dozens of outdoor decorations donated to Three Pillars Senior Living Communities

Dousman, Wis. May 11, 2020 — Community members Stacy Shultis and Heather Winkels kindly donated seasonal outdoor decorations for the residents of the Masonic Center for Health and Rehab (MCHR) at Three Pillars Senior Living Communities.

Shultis and Winkels inquired about donations from Dousman residents through the Facebook group Friends for a Greater Dousman where numerous community members chipped in to donate shepherd's hooks, bird feeders, bird seed, and more for the residents of Three Pillars to enjoy from the comfort of their rooms. There are enough feeders for every resident window at MCHR.

Stacy Shultis and Heather Winkels set up some bird feeders and shepherd's hooks.

"I said I should just come back and work at Three Pillars because I love the elderly and then we started out talking about how unfortunate it is that the residents can't see their families or have visitors, which is heart breaking for us just to hear," Shultis stated. "We love the facility, we love the elderly, and we love family. We can't imagine what it would be like to not be around our families, so we thought bring the babies and put up feeders, two things that people love – babies and birds!" Winkels added.

Shultis and Winkels worked at Three Pillars Senior Living Communities as Certified Nursing Assistants (CNAs) and now work as Registered Nurses at Aurora Health Care in Mukwonago, Wisconsin.

"Stacy and Heather started their nursing journey as CNAs here at Three Pillars so to see them come back years later to give back to our residents just warms my heart," said Melissa Gibbs, Recreation Services Manager. "Residents enjoy watching birds and other animals from their windows and with these new decorations, many more residents will get to enjoy that activity!" Gibbs continued.

Stacy Shultis, Heather Winkels, and their children stand proudly by their donations.

Three Pillars Senior Living Communities is appreciative of the many donations they have received to date and thanks the community for their continued support.
