THREE PILLARS ADDS THREE NEW MEMBERS TO SENIOR MANAGEMENT TEAM

Dousman, Wis. January 31, 2020 —Three Pillars Senior Living Communities welcomes three new team members to their Senior Management Team. Terri Isabell, as Chief Development Officer, Cheryl Kruger, as Director of Hospitality Services, and Eric Nitschke, P.E., as Director of Facilities Management and Capital Projects.

- Terri has over 20 years of Development and Fundraising experience and has worked with organizations like Ronald McDonald House, Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee, and Children’s Hospital of Wisconsin.
- Cheryl brings over 10 years of Dining Management experience in related organizations, including Linden Grove, Lutheran Home, and Aurora Healthcare.
- Eric is a Civil Engineer with almost 20 years of experience in Southeast Wisconsin and comes to us from the Village of Germantown where he served as Village Engineer.

According to Three Pillars CEO Mark Strautman, “We continue to add to our team, and I am excited to welcome Terri, Cheryl, and Eric to our family—together they represent a combined 50 years of experience, and each of them will play an important role in our future plans. These are important positions for us as we continue to focus on creating exceptional experiences for our residents and our staff.”
