Three Pillars' Employees Awarded Money from Scholarship Fund Through Glenn L. Humphrey Lodge

Dousman, Wis. August 2, 2021—The Glenn L. Humphrey Masonic Lodge Scholarship Program presented eight Three Pillars' employees with $6,250 in scholarships to help with continued education expenses. The lodge, in partnership with Three Pillars' Human Resources department, administered funds for the annual program.

At a ceremony with residents and the families of scholarship recipients on Three Pillars' Campus in Dousman, staff from dining services, nursing, and marketing were awarded scholarships ranging from $750 to $1,000 to help with continued education expenses.

Duane Bunting, Glenn L. Humphrey Lodge Scholarship Committee Chair, said, "We're grateful to once again be able to partner with Three Pillars to donate scholarships to hardworking and deserving employees. We're able to provide this continued support thanks to generous individual and group donations to the scholarship fund from lodge members."

Marketing and Communications Coordinator and scholarship recipient, Olivia Bolton, was thankful to have been selected, "I'm incredibly thankful to have been given this generous scholarship that will help cover tuition expenses during my time in graduate school. The lodge's support and decision to recognize my hard work truly means a lot."

Chief Human Resources & Compliance Officer Kathy Bernaden noted the importance of supporting staff with continued education, "Our success is a direct result of our employees and it's important to help them grow in their field of work by providing opportunities like tuition reimbursement and the Glenn L. Humphrey lodge scholarship. When we support them and their goals, they return the favor by bringing their new set of knowledge and skills to their jobs at Three Pillars."
