Three Pillars Hires Curran as Chief Financial Officer

Dousman, Wis. - Three Pillars Senior Living Communities is pleased to announce the hiring of Melissa Curran as their new Chief Financial Officer, a key member of their executive leadership team.

With over 30 years of experience in finance and accounting, Curran spent the past two decades working in the industries closest to her heart: healthcare and senior living. She brings robust skills in all aspects of strategic financial oversight and leadership. Most recently, Curran was Vice President of Finance at St. Camillus Health System, Inc.

Curran's appointment comes after Three Pillars' previous Chief Financial Officer announced her retirement. After over 12 years and numerous accomplishments with Three Pillars, Jean Freuck retired from her role.

"We thank Jean for 12 exceptional years at Three Pillars and wish her all the best in her next chapter," said Mark Strautman, President & CEO. "Looking ahead, we couldn't be happier about the way Melissa aligns with our mission and values. We are proud to have her strong financial expertise guiding the way during our community's strategic expansion and beyond."
