Three Pillars Dedicates Cornerstone of Welcome Center at The Fields At Three Pillars

Dousman, Wis. – Exactly one year to the day from its expansion groundbreaking ceremony, Three Pillars Senior Living Communities welcomed a crowd of over 120 people to dedicate the cornerstone of the Welcome Center at its active adult community - The Fields At Three Pillars.

The ceremony featured remarks from Three Pillars' President and CEO, Mark Strautman, and Three Pillars' Board of Directors Chair, Bill Huelsman. The Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons in Wisconsin, Thomas W. Stevens, and his team performed the Masonic Dedication Ceremony showcasing the immaculate cornerstone, which was filled with time capsule contents and installed into the Welcome Center entrance.

Following the ceremony, attendees enjoyed refreshments and guided bus tours of The Fields At Three Pillars, which will open in phases and welcome its first residents this summer. The Fields is scheduled to be completed in late 2026.

“We were happy to have a wonderful crowd for our ceremony and appreciate the support we have received for this innovative active adult expansion,” said Strautman. “Stay tuned for information about our grand opening in July – we look forward to another milestone celebration as we welcome The Fields’ first residents!”
